Olivers Mount, Scarborough, July 2009

Starters will be held if entries and time allow.

Camping is available for the week. It is hoped to provide fun activities. If you have suggestions, skills, equipment for this, please feel free to offer. There are toilets showers and changing rooms. Also we are allowed to use the Leisure Centre common room at the bottom of the hill, useful particularly if the weather is inclement. This has bar facilities, times to be obtained.

There is a café on the Mount, open usually until 4 or 5pm. They will open evenings if sufficient meals are booked in advance. Please would team captains provide numbers of those interested and evenings required.

A food van will be available both weekends.
