This tournament is being held alongside the Just Dogs Live Event on the 8th/9th/10th July 2011

Just Dogs Live incorporates the East of England Championship Dog Show and will include the traditional Crufts qualifier showing classes.

The show, now in its third year, will also feature additional attractions, including demonstrations and competitions to ensure the event is a fantastic day out for all dog lovers, young and old.

Just a selection of the demos, have-a-goes and competitions that are happening are...

Laines Shooting School & Mullenscote Gundogs

Lowestoft Dog Display Team

Canine Partners

Pets As Therapy

Gun Dog Scurry

For more information please see their website - <http://www.justdogslive.co.uk/>

The area of the showground that is covered by the BFA sanctioned tournament is not part of UK Kennel Club Licensed show, and you are free to come and go as you please. If you wish to visit the main show you are also free to do so, and we will supply you with wrist bands to enable you to enter the show FOC. However, if you wish to take your dog into the KC area of the showground, you will be required to sign a declaration form in accordance with the KC rules. These forms will be readily available in the secretary's area of our show.
